The students will be placed in homes that fulfill the following requirements:

1. The Boarding Home Parent must have a sincere interest in children and their education, a good understanding and appreciation of their ethnic, cultural and religious differences.
2. The Boarding Home Parent must provide adequate and comfortable sleeping arrangements (one or two students of same gender to a bedroom with single beds).
3. The Boarding Home Parent must provide well-balanced and nutritious meals required for the maintenance of good health.
4. The Boarding Home Parent must provide a quiet place with adequate lighting for the student to study.
5. The Boarding Home Parents must contact the student's worker or On-Call workers immediately if any serious problems arise.
6. The Boarding Home Parent must encourage the student to attend classes regularly and to complete assignments on time (the student should provide the Boarding Home Parent with their class schedule).
7. The Boarding Parent should treat the boarding student like their own child(ren).

I have read the responsibilities, as stated above, that are required of a boarding home parent. I agree that my home meets all the requirements and I welcome placement for a student/s from an IFNA community for the duration of the school year into my home.
