Female House

Full-Time Position

Closing Date: July 30, 2024

Location: Sioux Lookout, Ontario (in person)

Under the direct supervision of the Residence Manager, the Student Home Worker plays a crucial role in providing care and support to students living away from their family and home community while attending school. The primary responsibility is to ensure a safe, nurturing environment conducive to academic and social success. The ideal candidate will possess a deep understanding of Indigenous culture and traditions and adhere to safety, confidentiality, and privacy policies.

Responsibilities:

1. Creating a Safe and Supportive Environment:

- Prepare the home for student arrival, including onboarding and orientation.
- Plan and provide nutritious meals and snacks, managing grocery shopping.
- Enforce house rules and facilitate daily chores, offering guidance and training.
- Maintain detailed daily reports and communicate effectively with stakeholders.
- Participate in meetings regarding student progress and development.

2. Role Modeling and Mentorship:

- Serve as a role model, establishing healthy boundaries.
- Foster trust and rapport through effective communication.
- Cultivate a supportive environment where students feel comfortable expressing themselves.

3. Life Skills Training:

- Provide instruction in essential life skills such as time management and seeking assistance.
- Encourage participation in Native Language and Culture activities.
- Support students in mental health and addiction challenges.
- Engage in programming to enhance student connections and support.

4. Team Collaboration and Flexibility:

- Collaborate with colleagues to cover absences and meet organizational demands.

Note: Flexibility is key at IFNA. You may occasionally cover tasks outside your role ensuring comprehensive support for our organizations mission.

Position Requirements:

- Ontario Secondary School Graduation Diploma or equivalent.
- Minimum 2 years of experience working with First Nations youth.
- Class G Driver's license with at least 3 years of driving experience and a clean driver's abstract.
- Ability to pass a Vulnerable Sector Criminal Records Check.
- Certification in CPR/First Aid, Safe Food Handling, Mental Health First Aid, and other relevant trainings.
- Strong understanding of Indigenous history, traditions, and beliefs; proficiency in an Indigenous dialect is advantageous.
- Familiarity with Indigenous communities and organizations, preferably with prior experience in an Indigenous setting.
- Experience in addressing mental health issues and addictions among youth.
- Knowledge of child development theory and practice.
- Proficient in crisis intervention.
- Excellent organizational skills and ability to prioritize tasks effectively.

Salary: $50,000 to $70,000
